In Love
James Pinhorn

Search for the balance
seek for the truth
look to the answers
in the wisdom of youth.

What will we find, up there?

Angels and [aliens
hear when we cry
when something is missing
we look to the sky.

What will we find, up there?

All that we need,
In Love

CauseLove, it is patient and Love, it is kind Love is the light
The seeker shall find.

Follow your pathway
the end is the same
what we have wrought here
has wisdom and shame.

What will we find, up there?

One day we'll travel
out past the stars
and put down new roots
on the moon and on Mars.

What will we find, up there?

All that we need,
In Love
All that we need,
In Love.
