Much Ado
Words and Music by James Pinhorn

You got tears like the fallin' rain,
who would have thought that we would be here again?
Much ado about nothing me and you.
Much ado about nothing me and you.

Well what you see is what you get,
I know you're crying but I'm willing to bet
it's much ado about nothing me and you.
Much ado about nothing me and you.

How can you stand it when I carry on that way?
You must really love me to remain.
I don't say what I mean and I don't mean what I say.
Girl I hope the pleasure's worth the pain.

Like pulling teeth, like pulling hair,
with all this screaming we ain't getting anywhere.
Much ado about nothing me and you.
Much ado about nothing me and you.

My greatest fear is my greatest sorrow.
It's here today and it's gone tomorrow.
Much ado about nothing me and you.
Much ado about nothing me and you.

This romance is like the sweetest honey rose,
it will prick you but the wound will always heal.
This blood is spilling out for the greatest human cause.
It's the sacrifice we make for what we feel.

Thank you Shakespeare 'cause I'm inspired.
You roll with the punches and you're never ever tired of

Much ado
about nothing me and you.
Much ado
about nothing me and you.

© James Pinhorn 2011